

ADULT APPLICATION

For Learning for Life district and council committee participants and Exploring or Explorer Club adult leaders.

Mission: To develop and deliver engaging, research-based academic, character, leadership, and career-focused programs aligned to state and national standards that guide and enable all students to achieve their full potential.

By submitting this application you are authorizing a criminal background check of yourself. This check will be made from public record sources. You will have an opportunity to review and challenge any adverse information disclosed by the check. If you would like a copy of your criminal background report, please contact your local office.

Youth Protection Training

All volunteers are required to complete Youth Protection training before volunteer service with youth begins. Training is available online at www.learningforlife.org, and each local Learning for Life office provides training to volunteers on a regular basis throughout the year. Contact your local Learning for Life staff for assistance.

Adult Qualification. All adults must be 21 years of age and are required to complete Youth Protection training prior to volunteer service with youth. Additional training information can be found by visiting www.learningforlife.org.

Adults are selected by the participating organization for involvement in the program. Color, race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, ethnic background, disability, economic status or citizenship are not criteria for participation.

Learning for Life Privacy Policy. Learning for Life protects the confidentiality of the names and personal information of those who are affiliated with the organization. No commercial or unauthorized use is made of the names, addresses, and other confidential information of members. Access to this information is strictly limited.

Ethnic Background Information. Learning for Life receives inquiries from various agencies regarding racial composition. Please fill in the appropriate circle on the application to indicate ethnic background.

This application is designed to be an information-gathering aid. Answers given by the applicant are to be verified in those instances where a legitimate question arises as to his or her qualifications.

INSTRUCTIONS — POST/CLUB/GROUP PARTICIPANTS

1. Read, review, complete, and sign the Disclosure/Authorization Form.
Note: The completed and signed Disclosure/Authorization and Learning for Life Adult Application forms must be turned in together.
2. Complete and sign the local office copy of the Learning for Life and Explorer Post/Club Adult Application. Keep the applicant copy, and give the rest to the post committee chair/club sponsor/Learning for Life representative with the proper fees.
3. The post committee chair/club sponsor/Learning for Life representative keeps the respective copy, gives the post/club/group organization copy to the proper representative, and forwards the local office copy and the Disclosure/Authorization form to the local Learning for Life and Exploring office for approval and processing.

Vision: To provide positive and meaningful real-world career experiences and leadership development opportunities for all teenagers and young adults in their chosen field of interest.

Vision: To provide engaging and relevant PreK-12 solutions that positively impact academic performance, social and emotional maturity, character development, and career education for all students.

Disclosure/Authorization Form

NOTICE TO APPLICANT REGARDING BACKGROUND CHECK

In order to safeguard the youth in our care, Learning for Life will procure consumer reports on you in connection with your application to serve as a volunteer, and Learning for Life may procure additional consumer reports at any time during your service as a volunteer in order to evaluate your continued suitability for volunteer service. Learning for Life has contracted with First Advantage, a consumer reporting agency, to provide the consumer reports. First Advantage may be contacted by mail at First Advantage, 1000 Alderman Drive, Alpharetta, GA 30005, or by telephone at 800-845-6004.

The consumer reports may contain information bearing on your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. The types of information that may be obtained include but are not limited to Social Security number verification, sex offender registry checks, criminal records checks, inmate records searches, and court records checks. The information contained in these consumer reports may be obtained by First Advantage from public record sources.

The consumer reports will not include credit record checks or motor vehicle record checks.

The nature and scope of the consumer reports are described above. Nonetheless, you are entitled to request a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of such reports by submitting a written request to First Advantage at the address listed above. Additional notices for applicants in California, New York, Minnesota, and Oklahoma are provided.

APPLICANT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AUTHORIZATION

I have carefully read this notice and authorization form and I hereby authorize Learning for Life and First Advantage to procure a consumer report, which as described above will include information relating to my criminal history as received from reporting agencies. I understand that this information will be used to determine my eligibility for a volunteer position with Learning for Life. I also understand that as long as I remain a volunteer, additional consumer reports may be procured at any time. I understand that if Learning for Life chooses not to accept my application or to revoke my participation based on information contained in a consumer report, I will receive a summary of my rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act and contact information for the reporting agency, First Advantage.

ADDITIONAL NOTICES TO CALIFORNIA, MINNESOTA, OKLAHOMA, AND NEW YORK APPLICANTS

California

Under California law, the consumer reports described above that Learning for Life will procure on you are defined as investigative consumer reports. These reports will be procured in connection with your application to serve as a volunteer, and additional reports may be procured at any time during your service as a volunteer in order to evaluate your continued suitability for volunteer service. The reports may include information on your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living.

Under section 1786.22 of the California Civil Code, you may inspect the file maintained on you by First Advantage, during normal business hours and with proper identification. You may also obtain a copy of this file, upon submitting proper identification and paying the costs of duplication, by appearing at First Advantage's offices in person, during normal business hours and on reasonable notice, or by certified mail upon making a written request. You may also receive a summary of the information contained in this file by telephone. First Advantage will provide trained personnel to explain any information furnished to you and will provide a written explanation of any coded information. This written explanation will be provided whenever a file is provided to you for visual inspection. If you appear in person, you may be accompanied by one other person of your choosing, who must furnish reasonable identification.

For Applicants in California, Minnesota, and Oklahoma Only

You have the right to request a free copy of any report procured on you. If you wish to receive a free copy of any report procured on you, check the box below.

I request a free copy of any report procured on me.

New York

As explained above, a consumer report will be requested in connection with your application, and additional consumer reports may be requested during the course of your service with Learning for Life. You have the right, upon request, to be informed whether or not a consumer report was requested and, if a consumer report was requested, of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the consumer report.

My signature below indicates that I have read, understand, and accept the accompanying disclosures and acknowledgments.
