RE: Personnel Announcement – Joseph Thomas

I am pleased to announce the selection of Joseph Thomas to serve as the Prairie Dunes and Thunderbird District Executive effective April 16, 2018. He will be stationed at the Robert J. Welsh Service Center in Munster.

Joseph has more than 10 years' experience as an educator, mentor and college faculty member. He served in increasing roles of responsibility for the welfare and growth of young people with schools, family services, Anderson University and Ivy Tech. He also volunteered as a mentor in our STEM Scouts program in Gary, Indiana.

Joseph is a graduate of Anderson University with a bachelor of arts in business management and not-for-profit leadership, as well as master's degrees in business and theological studies. He was also a student athlete in high school and college, including football, wrestling and tennis.

Joseph and his wife Lorelei reside in Porter, Indiana, with their three children, Adrian (6), Lucy (4), and Zeek (1). He enjoys spending time with his family, camping, sports, cards and board games.

Please join me in welcoming Joseph and his family to the Pathway to Adventure Council. He can be reached at joseph.thomas@scouting.org.
