

Every Den needs a Den Chief

What is a den chief? – A Boy Scout trained to work with the Den Leader to demonstrate and guide Cub Scouts in the ways of Scouting. The Den Chief is a critical member of the Cub Scout leadership team. To be successful, a Boy Scout must realize the importance of his job and attend Den Chief training.

DEN CHIEF TRAINING - SCHAUMBURG

Friday 06-02-2017 5:30 PM to 9:00 PM
Our Saviour's United Methodist Church
701 E Schaumburg Rd
Schaumburg, Illinois 60194

Den Chief Training helps Boy Scouts understand how to work with Den Leaders, teaches the skills the Den Chief will need to be successful and builds knowledge and enthusiasm for the position. They learn how then demonstrate Scout spirit to Cub Scouts and engage them in Scouting.

Den Chief Training is required for Boy Scouts who wish to serve as a Den Chief for a Pack. Den and Troop leaders, if you know a Boy Scout who could be a Den Chief encourage them to attend.

This is a uniformed event, check in starts at 5:15 pm and the session will begin promptly at 5:30 pm ending at 9:00 pm. Pizza will be provided.

Boy Scouts should bring a notebook and pen. It is strongly suggested that Scouts obtain a copy of the Den Chief Handbook which is available at the local scout shops.

Cost: No fee – Online registration is strongly recommended so adequate supplies will be available on the day of the training.
