

Scouting U at the BSA My.Scouting.org website brings Cub Scout leaders 24X7 access the awareness and understanding needed to deliver on the promise to all Cub Scout boys – a fun and enriching experience build on the Scout Oath and Law that will make them better leaders and citizens, as well as a person who has the confidence and knowledge to be all they can be for a life time.

The online Scouting U training is delivered as a comprehensive package for each Pack leader role; Den Leader, Cub Master and assistant and Committee member. The package segments, of about 20 minutes, can be taken as time is available. The segments provide awareness and understanding of Scouting aims, mission and methods, with specific guidance in areas such as how the engage other parents in the den and Pack operations, and how to maintain a disciplined and fun environment when dealing with boys wired for high energy and short attention spans.

If you have not registered in My.scouting.org you will need your adult Scout membership card containing your member number. Then go to My.scouting.org and establish an account.

Once logged in My.scouting.org, select on the right side of the page the “BSA Learn Center” box to take you to Scouting U. Select the Program Specific Training for Cub Scouting. Then select the training package for your role to add to your “Learning Plan”. Add the course to your plan by clicking the “+”, and click the “My Learning” link at the top of the page to start the training segment. Your membership number will allow the training taken to be automatically added to your Scout training record and enable your Pack to gain recognition on the “Journey to Excellence.”

All leaders need to understand and appreciate how to deliver the Cub Scout program in order to make Pack and Den meetings exciting and worthwhile experiences, and for all volunteers to work together in reaching the common mission of delivering on the Cub Scouting promise to boys.

Give Scouting U a try today and learn something new at My.Scouting.org