Arrowhead District Camporee
Cooking Grand Championship
(some Pioneering) and District Dinner Feast.

When: April 3, 4, 5, 2020
Where: Pioneer Woods

Overview: For this year’s Spring camporee it is all about cooking. Units will be cooking their best camp out dishes to impress our judges, with the hope of becoming the Arrowhead Districts Grand Camp Cooking Champion. It’s like taking your favorite cooking competition shows and rolling them into one giant event.

Rules:
1. The Spring Cooking and Pioneering Camporee is performed by the Troops without the direct support of the Scoutmaster and the Leadership team. All Troop tents, equipment, layout Cooking and Kitchen are to be managed and set up by the youth, Boys or Girls, of the Troop.

2. Separating the Leaders from the youth is a test of their knowledge and use of Scout Skills.

3. Each Troop will be divided with the Leaders camping, cooking and other activities separate from the Scouts. Scouts camp independent of the Leaders, performing all duties without Leader direction. Please note that the Leaders are ultimately in charge and maintain oversite within the Troop site.

4. Scouts are to plan and set up their camp and cooking facility. A minimum of three lashed kitchen gadgets are required. Saturday Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner, and the kitchen setup for efficiency will be judged. (First Aid Kit(s), fire extinguishing water buckets and/or fire extinguishers are a must!)

5. Leaders are also to set up their camp without Scout assistance.

6. Prior to the campout, the Scouts need to plan their menu and related activities to layout the Troop’s camp, set up the kitchen and develop meals for Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner. Dinner is to be shared with a District Feast held at the Pavilion. All activities need to be done by the guidelines in their Handbook, Field Book, Merit Badge Books, Guide to Safe Scouting or any other Scout approved resource. All activities should be planned with safety and common sense as the top priory. All activities once planned and written out must be approved by your Scoutmaster and needs to be posted in camp.

NOTE: Scouts are to keep in mind the possible dietary and/or religious food restrictions when cooking their dinner. If a Scout in your troop has any food restrictions, they should consider making a dish that is friendly to them. The dietary plate can be taken to the District Feast for their consumption.

7. Prior to the campout, the Leaders need to plan Leisure activities to keep themselves entertained for the day. All Leader activities must be in good taste and be good natured. All Leaders are encouraged to plan a Leisure activity that other Leaders could join in for some inter-leader fun. This way everyone can make new friendships.

8. Leaders will also be responsible for planning and carrying out the preparation for all their meals. From the menu to the cleanup. Complexity of the meals will be a part of the scoring. Again, be creative. Leaders will be scored on their overall enjoyment of the weekend.
9. Scouts will also be responsible for the cleanup and care for their part of the campsite. Leaders will be responsible for their own area of the campsite.

10. The Senior Patrol Leaders organizing this camporee will be with their own Troops. Members of the District & Council Committee not involved in a Troop at the Campout will judge the Leaders and Scouts for 1. Breakfast starts at 7:30. Judging Breakfast starts at 8:15 am. 2. Lunch starts at 12:00. Judging Lunch and Camp Layout starts at 1:00. 3. Dinner is at the Pioneer Woods Pavilion. Dinner dishes come to the Pioneer Woods Pavilion at 5:30 pm for judging. Dinner commences at 6:00 pm. 4. Desert dishes come to Pioneer Woods Pavilion at 6:45. Desert commences at 7:00 pm.

11. Remember to be fair and to remember that everyone is still learning.

12. Leaders, even though this is a competition if you see someone struggling or a safety or conduct issue arise please don’t hesitate to step in. Please remember that some troops do have younger Scouts who might need a hand.

13. We are out there to have fun but also to be safe. Everyone does need to remember the Scout Oath and Law and Motto.

14. NO GROUND FIRES. All fires must be in an above ground fire pit.

15. Picnic Tables may be scarce, bring your own if you have them.

16. Ribbons for both Scouts and Leaders will be given out at Saturday’s Camporee Campfire.
