RE: Personnel Announcement – Ty Washington

I am pleased to announce the selection of Lawrence “Ty” Washington, Jr. to serve as the Director of Urban Emphasis for the Pathway to Adventure Council effective September 1, 2017.

In this role, Ty will oversee operations for the following programs: Restoring the Village, Diversity and Inclusion, and Scouting through Soccer. He will also give professional leadership to traditional Scouting in the Iroquois Trails and Greater Southside Districts. He will continue to serve on the Field Leadership Team of the Council.

Ty began his professional career in 2005 as a District Executive in the Detroit Area Council, working in the City of Detroit. In 2009 he came to the Chicago Area Council, by way of promotion, to District Director for the Arrowhead District.

After 4 years in Chicago, Ty accepted a leadership assignment as District Director for the Calumet Council, giving leadership to the Prairie Dunes and Thunderbird Districts. In 2014 Ty was promoted to Field Director for the Calumet Council.

Most recently, Ty served as the Community Impact Director for the Chicago Community giving leadership to the Arrowhead, Founders, Indian Trails and Iroquois Trails districts.

Ty is a recipient of the Professional Training Award and is a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow. He has served as a WoodBadge staff advisor and is a proud Buffalo.

He holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Inter-Disciplinary Studies as well as a Masters Degree in Communication from the University of Akron, where he played football.

Ty is the father of two beautiful children, Laila and Dion. They are both in the Scouting program and he is very proud of his scouting family.

Please join me in congratulating Ty in this new role, he can be reached via email at Ty.Washington@Scouting.org
