

Bullying Awareness

Bullying has become a serious problem in our society. Scout leaders and parents need to be aware and proactive in addressing this problem. Here are some useful links to assist unit leaders and parents with this issue.

Yours in Scouting,

Bob Johnson

Des Plaines Valley Community Training Chair
Boy Scouts of America, Pathway to Adventure Council

There is an excellent Scouting Magazine reprint at <http://scoutingmagazine.org/issues/1009/a-bully.html>

It references a supplemental training on bullying with Power Point at <http://scouting.org/filestore/ppt/bullyingprevention.ppt>
Facilitator's Guide at <http://www.scouting.org/filestore/doc/18-114.doc>

Here are some resource materials
<http://www.scouting.org/Training/YouthProtection/bullying.aspx>

The main guide is
<http://www.scouting.org/filestore/training/pdf/BullyingPreventionGuide.pdf>

At the bottom of the following page, there is a section on Youth-on-Youth. The Power Point includes slide 13 on bullying.
<http://www.scouting.org/Training/YouthProtection.aspx>

There is a Power Point directed at youth at <http://www.scouting.org/filestore/training/ppt/Bullying-Scout-Self-Study.ppsx>

There is a Power Point directed at Scout leaders at <http://www.scouting.org/filestore/training/ppt/Bullying-Leader-Self-Study.ppsx>