

CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST POLICY FOR COUNCIL EMPLOYEES

December 1, 2021

RESOLVED, that the following conflict-of-interest policy become the policy of this corporation and be applied to all of its employees. It is imperative that employees of a local council of the Boy Scouts of America conduct themselves with a degree of honesty and integrity which is beyond reproach or even suspicion.

While it is not possible to anticipate every situation and prescribe a precise rule for each, it is possible to set forth certain basic, general principles to be observed by employees at all times. The essence of this policy is that employees shall always deal with others doing, or seeking to do, business with the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof in a manner that excludes all consideration of personal advantage. Accordingly, every employee of Pathway to Adventure Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America is subject to the following policy:

1. Interest in Other Business Organization

Employees of the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof or members of their immediate families shall not have any interest, direct or indirect, in any other business which in any degree conflicts with the employee's primary obligations to the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof. In this regard, employees or members of their immediate families should not possess a significant financial interest in any business that does, or seeks to do, business with the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof. In addition, employees should not conduct business on behalf of the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof with members of their immediate family, or a business organization with which the employees or members of their immediate families have any association which could be construed as significant in terms of potential conflict of interest.

2. Gifts, Favors, Entertainment and Payments to Employees

Employees shall not seek or accept any gifts, payments, fees, services, valuable privileges, vacations or pleasure trips, loans (other than conventional loans from lending institutions) or other favors from any person or business organization that does, or seeks to do, business with the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof. No employee shall accept anything of value in exchange for referral of parties to any person or business organization that does, or seeks to do, business with the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof. In the application of this policy:

- (a) Employees may accept common courtesies of nominal value usually associated with accepted business practices for themselves and members of their families.
- (b) An especially strict standard is expected with respect to gifts, services or considerations of any kind from suppliers. Entertainment at the expense of suppliers beyond that contemplated by (a) above should not be accepted under any circumstance.
- (c) It is never permissible to accept a gift in cash or cash equivalents of any amount.

- (d) This policy does not preclude the acceptance of benefits to the corporation or the Boy Scouts of America as compared to benefits to an individual employee.
- (e) This policy does not preclude the acceptance of courtesies extended to employees of the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof in their official capacities, such as gratis hotel rooms for business (but not personal use) in connection with meetings.
- (f) This policy will be communicated to persons and organizations doing, or seeking to do, business with the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof.

3. Confidential Information

Employees shall not, without proper authority, give or release to anyone not an employee, or to another employee who has no need for the information, data or information of a confidential nature concerning the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof.

4. Gifts, Favors, Entertainment, and Payments by the Boy Scouts of America or Any Local Council Thereof

Gifts, favors, and entertainment may be given others at the expense of the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof only if they meet all of the following criteria:

- (a) They are consistent with accepted business practices.
- (b) They are of sufficiently limited value, and in a form that will not be construed as improper.
- (c) They are not in contravention of applicable law and generally accepted ethical standards.
- (d) Public disclosure of the facts will not embarrass the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof.

5. Obligation to Disclose

Any employee who believes that his or her personal actions or interests, or the actions of others, may violate this policy must discuss the matter with the Scout executive. Additional interpretations of this policy and definitions of words and phrases used herein will be made upon request to the Scout executive.

6. Sanctions

Any employee whose actions or interests violate this policy is subject to termination on that account alone, if such is determined to be in the best interests of the movement.

It is the responsibility of every employee of the Boy Scouts of America or any local council thereof to be aware of and to observe these standards. Accordingly, each employee is asked to sign and return the accompanying Employee Statement relating to these standards. Employee Statements will be held in complete confidence. The employee statement will be re-executed on a regular basis.
